Statement of intent

At Forsbrook Church of England Primary School, we believe that every child deserves the best possible start in life and the educational provision to enable them to fulfil their potential. We provide a balanced curriculum that enables each child to develop personally, socially, emotionally, spiritually, physically, creatively and intellectually.

At Forsbrook Church of England Primary School, we greatly value the importance of the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) in providing a secure foundation for future learning and development. This policy has been developed in conjunction with the relevant DfE guidance and legislation to ensure that each child has a happy and positive start to their school life in which they can build a foundation for a love of learning. We ensure that children learn and develop well and are kept healthy and safe. We promote teaching and learning to ensure children's readiness for the next stage of their education and give children a broad range of knowledge and skills that provide the right foundation for good future progress through school and life.

We seek to provide:

- Quality and consistency, so that every child makes good progress and no child gets left behind.
- A secure foundation through learning and development opportunities which are planned around the needs and interests of each child and are assessed and reviewed regularly.
- Partnership working between practitioners and parents.

These issues are addressed in part in this policy and in further detail in the school's Safeguarding Policy, Mobile Phone Policy and Photographic Images Policy.

2.2. The Governing Body has the overall responsibility for ensuring there is a policy in place in the event of an allegation being made against a member of staff (including supply staff) or a volunteer. These issues are addressed in the school's Safeguarding Policy and Whistleblowing Policy.

2.3. The Governing Body has the overall responsibility for the implementation of this policy.

2.5. The Governing Body has the responsibility for handling complaints regarding this policy, as outlined in the school's Complaints Procedures Policy.

2.8. Staff, including teachers, support staff, supply staff and volunteers, are responsible for remaining alert to any issues of concern in children.

3. Aims

3.1. Through the implementation of this policy, we aim to:

- Give each child a happy and positive start to their school life in which they can establish a solid foundation for a love of learning.
- Enable each child to develop socially, physically, intellectually and emotionally.
- Encourage children to develop independence within a secure and friendly atmosphere.
- Support children in building relationships through the development of social skills, such as cooperation and sharing.
- Work alongside parents to meet each child's individual needs to ensure they reach their full potential.

3.2. Four guiding principles shape our practice:

- Every child is a unique child, who is constantly learning and can be resilient, capable, confident and self-assured.

- Children learn to be strong and independent through positive relationships.
- Children learn and develop well in enabling environments with teaching and support from adults, who respond to their individual interests and needs and help them to build their learning overtime. Children benefit from a strong partnership between the school and parents.
- Learning and development is important. Children develop and learn in different ways and at different rates.

3.3. To put these principles into practice, the school:

- Provides a balanced curriculum which takes children's different stages of development into account.
- Promotes equality of opportunity and anti-discriminatory practice.
- Works in partnership with parents.
- Plans challenging learning experiences, based on individual needs, which are informed by observation and assessment.
- Provides a safe and secure learning environment.

4. Learning and development

At Forsbrook Church of England Primary School, our bespoke curriculum is carefully planned, implemented and regularly reviewed. The different areas of the curriculum cater for all children to access and experience the engaging activities. Play is an essential part of the curriculum. Through play children develop across all areas as it builds on children's confidence as they learn to explore, to relate to others around them and develop relationships, set their own goals and solve problems.

4.1. The EYFS curriculum is based on an observation of children's needs, interests and stages of development.

4.2. In partnership with parents, the school promotes the learning and development of pupils to ensure they are ready for the next stage of education.

4.3. There are seven areas of learning and development that must shape education programmes in EYFS settings. These are split into two sections – prime and specific; however, all the sections are interconnected and important.

4.4. The 'prime' areas of learning and development are:

- Communication and language - Listening, attention and understanding – Speaking. The development of spoken language underpins all seven areas and high-quality back-and-forth interactions and conversations in a language rich environment are key to success in this area.
- Physical development - Gross motor skills - Fine motor skills. This also talks about the importance of physical development to children's all-round health. This includes social and emotional wellbeing.
- Personal, social and emotional development - Self-regulation - Managing self - Building relationships. This refers to the importance of attachments, within strong, warm, supportive relationships, and the role of self-regulation.

4.5. The 'specific' areas of learning and development are:

- Literacy - Comprehension - Word reading – Writing.
- Mathematics - Number - Numerical patterns.
- Understanding the World - Past and Present - People, Culture and Communities - The Natural World.
- Expressive Arts and Design - Creating with Materials - Being Imaginative and Expressive.

4.6. The early learning goals (ELGs) above are not used as a curriculum or in any way to limit the wide variety of rich experiences that are crucial to child development. The ELGs are used to support teachers to make a holistic, best fit judgement about a child's development and their readiness for Year 1.

4.7. Activities are planned to reflect children's interests and individual circumstances in order to provide each child with a challenging and enjoyable experience.

4.8. The EYFS lead discusses any cause for concern in a child's progress, especially in the 'prime' areas of learning, with the child's parents. A strategy of support is agreed upon and consideration is taken as to whether the child may have SEND which requires additional support.

4.9. The school takes reasonable steps to provide opportunities for children with EAL to use their home language in play and learning whilst also ensuring that these children have sufficient opportunities to reach a good standard of English. During assessment, if a child is found to not have a strong grasp on English, the EYFS teacher contacts the child's parents to establish their home language skills to assess if there is cause for concern about a language delay.

4.10. Each area of learning and development is implemented through activities the teacher believes are the most effective for the children they are teaching.

4.11. The school responds to each child's emerging needs and interests, guiding their development through friendly and positive interaction.

4.12. Activities are planned with regard to the three characteristics of effective teaching and learning in the EYFS:

- Playing and Exploring – children investigate and experience things.

'Children's play reflects their wide ranging and varied interests and preoccupations. In their play children learn at their highest level. Play with peers is important for children's development.'

Through play, our children explore and develop learning experiences, which help them make sense of the world. They practise and build up ideas, learn how to control themselves and understand the need for rules. They have the opportunity to think creatively alongside other children as well as on their own. They communicate with others as they investigate and solve problems.

- Active Learning – children concentrate, keep on trying if they encounter difficulties and enjoy their achievements.

'Children learn best through physical and mental challenges. Active learning involves other people, objects, ideas and events that engage and involve children for sustained periods.'

Active learning occurs when children are motivated and interested. Children need some independence and control over their learning. As children develop their confidence, they learn to make decisions. It provides children with a sense of satisfaction as they take ownership of their learning.

- Creating and Thinking Critically – children have and develop their own ideas, make links between ideas, and develop strategies for doing things.

“Children have opportunities to play with ideas in different situations and with a variety of resources, they discover connections and come to new and better understandings and ways of doing things. Adult support in this process enhances their ability to think critically and ask questions.”

Children should be given the opportunity to be creative through all areas of learning. Adults can support children’s thinking and help them make connections by showing interest, offering encouragement, clarifying ideas and asking open ended questions. Children can access resources and move around the classroom freely and purposefully to extend their learning.

Planning – Teachers use the national schemes of work, where appropriate, to support their planning for individual children. The planning objectives within the Foundation Stage are from the Development Matters Statements from the Early Years Foundation Stage document. Planning is based upon a different topic which is identified as vehicle of interest to deliver the children’s next steps in learning, and therefore responds to the needs, achievement and interest of the children. The planning is also led by the children’s interests and can be adapted and changed to spark engagement and interest for all. The planning is based upon themes with discrete phonics, maths, reading and writing directed teaching. Our medium-term planning identifies the intended learning, with outcomes, for children to work towards the Early Learning Goals.

Observations - Foundation Stage staff use observations as the basis for planning. Staff are skilled at observing children to identify their achievements, interests and next steps for learning. These observations then lead the direction of the planning. Relevant and significant observations are recorded in the children’s Learning Journeys.

5. Inclusion

5.1. All children are valued as individuals irrespective of their ethnicity, national origin, culture, religion, gender, disability or sexual orientation.

5.2. The EYFS curriculum is planned in order to meet the needs of each individual child and support them at their own pace.

5.3. The Equality Policy ensures that the needs of all children are met.

5.4. The Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Policy ensures all children receive the support they need and are given the best learning experience possible.

5.5. Children with SEND in the EYFS setting are monitored and managed by the school's SENDCo, Miss Hackney.

6. The learning environment and outdoor spaces

6.1. The classroom is organised in such a way that children can explore and learn in a safe environment.

6.2. Children have access to an enclosed outdoor play area, and daily outdoor activities are planned, unless circumstances, such as the weather, would make outdoor activity inappropriate and unsafe.

6.3. There are toilet facilities available to the EYFS.

6.4 Being outdoors offers opportunities for doing things in different ways and in different scales than when indoors. This is why our school promotes outdoor learning as well as the children having Forest School lessons. The children can explore, use their senses and be physically active and exuberant. All areas of the curriculum can be explored outside.

7. Assessment

7.1. Assessment plays an important part in helping the school to recognise children's progress, understand their needs, plan activities and assess the need for support.

7.2. Parents are kept up-to-date with their child's progress and development, and the EYFS lead addresses any learning and development needs in partnership with parents.

7.3. Formative assessments are used to assess the learning and development of children in the EYFS. Staff members observe children to understand their level of achievement, interests and learning styles. This information is then used to shape learning experiences for each child.

7.4. In the final term of the year in which a child reaches age five, and no later than 30 June in that year, the EYFS profile is completed by the child's class teacher. Throughout the year the teacher will use 'point in time' summative assessments to evaluate whether children are 'on track' to reach the Early Learning Goal. If children are not on track then interventions will be implemented to ensure progress.

7.5. Reasonable adjustments are made to the assessment process for children with SEND as appropriate.

7.6. Assessment procedures are set out in full in the Assessment Policy.
